

EDUCATION SPECIAL EVENTS UPDATE

WORKSHOPS WITH MANDY GUNN

To coincide with Look closely now, exhibition artist Mandy Gunn will conduct two hands-on workshops for students and teachers from TAFE, university and secondary schools. Come and take advantage of this unique opportunity to work with this accomplished artist.

1. MONOPRINT WORKSHOP

Friday 26 October 2012

This workshop will include the following techniques using either hand- pressed or mechanical printing methods:

- drawing on to the top of paper on an inked-up plate
- drawing directly onto the plate or painting/mark making with different objects/materials
- using resists on the plate, eg. plant material, string/yarn, cut outs etc
- using Shellite on the inked up plate to achieve various effects
- different experimental techniques eg hand colouring, cutting up and remaking etc.

2. PAPER CONSTRUCTION WORKSHOP

Monday 29 October 2012

This workshop will explore different ways of constructing relief and sculptural objects including:

- a paper pom-pom from tissue.
- folded paper boxes
- a collaged cardboard grid form
- a folded book
- woven paper

Cost: $15 per person per workshop and includes all materials and morning/afternoon tea (bring your own lunch)

To ensure a place for these days please fill out the registration form and either fax to:
the gallery on 49658733 or email to artgallery@lakemac.nsw.gov.au

REGISTRATION FORM

NOTE: PAYMENT IS REQUIRED ON THE DAY OF THE WORKSHOP

Name: _____

Institution: _____

Are you a teacher

☐

student

☐

Contact details:

Email: _____

Tel: _____

Which workshop/s would you like to attend:

Monoprint

☐

Paper Construction

☐

Images: Mandy Gunn L: Between the Lines
R: 63 degrees South