

TERM 2 SCHOOLS PROGRAM

HSC CLINICS

In line with the focus of First Class exhibition project, now in its fifth year, the gallery will present a number of programs designed specifically for senior students.

INTENSIVE DRAWING CLINICS

Friday 24 May & Friday 7 June

9:15am - 3:00pm

After many successful years of running these clinics, the gallery will again be offering intensive drawing with Jane Lander for Year 11 students in preparation for their Body of Work. The clinics are designed to strengthen student's skills and confidence in artmaking. Numbers are limited to 15 per session so book NOW.

INTENSIVE WRITING CLINICS

Friday 31 May

9:15am - 3:00pm

After consultation with local secondary teachers, the gallery will host an intensive writing clinic exclusively for high band 5/low band 6 students, to move them towards high band 6 results. Students will be guided by Hunter based educator, Jennifer Florey, joined by an art theorist, through the process of how to best write for sections 1 & 2 of the HSC Visual Arts exam paper, while encouraging excellence in literacy. Numbers are limited to 15 for this session so book NOW. Teachers are welcome at no cost.

CASE STUDY FOR HSC STUDENTS

10 May – 28 July 2013

To support HSC Visual Arts study the gallery has embarked on a series of case studies of well-known Australian artists, the first of which is Anne Zahalka. The exhibition project will be accompanied by a comprehensive education resource prepared by Central-Coast based art educator, Kate Caddey. <http://www.artgallery.lakemac.com.au/exhibitions/coming-up>
A gallery project coordinated by Meryl Ryan in consultation with Visual Arts educator Kate Caddey.

Meet Anne Zahalka and hear her speak at the opening of her exhibition project and the exhibition, First Class 12, Saturday 11 May from 2pm at the gallery.

EXHIBITION

10 May – 16 June 2013

Now in its fifth year, First Class is an established annual exhibition project celebrating the high calibre of work produced by students from the Hunter and Central Coast regions. The exhibition is selected from nominated Higher School Certificate submissions produced in the previous year. In 2013, the selected artworks show the student artists' serious involvement in the development of their own art practices.

A gallery project curated by Tatiana Barisa and Ann Caddey, in consultation with Meryl Ryan.

Book your excursion now and remember ArtExpress is showing at Maitland Regional Art Gallery between 7 June - 28 July 2013, so make it a regional day out with your year 11 students and see it all.
